Q No: 5 Summary of the Poem "Daffodils."

The poem has been written by ~~with~~ William Wordsworth, a romantic poet. He is known as the poet of nature because of his love for it. Most of his poems describe nature and its beauty.

In this poem, he shares with us his exciting experience of enjoyment at the sight of beautiful Daffodil flowers. He states that once he was walking in the countryside. He suddenly came across a large number of Daffodils growing along the bank of a lake. The flowers were in the flood bloom.

The cool breeze was blowing. The daffodils were moving and dancing in the breeze. The sight delighted and fascinated the poet and he looked at the flowers for a long time.

This sight left a lasting impression on his memory. As a result,

Whenever, he is alone and in a sad mood, the same sight comes in to his imagination. The poet's heart is filled with pleasure. This experience has become a permanent source of pleasure for the poet.
